Helping bring Hope to Geelong families trying to cope with the death of a precious loved one.
Raising awareness and suicide prevention in our communities.

Hope Bereavement Care works in partnership with:

- Support After Suicide, Jesuit Social Services
- Helping bring more Hope to families trying to cope with the death of a precious loved one.

Providing free information, support and counselling for families and others who have experienced the sudden or unexpected death of a loved one.

Hope Bereavement Care and Support After Suicide Geelong rely heavily on their fundraising efforts and the generosity of the community, receiving no direct government funding.
